Dear Mike,

On page 196 of PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH: SUPPRESSED KENNEDY ASSASSINATION PICTURES, I print the January 23, 1967 letter from Post Managing Editor Don A. Schanche to J. Lee Rankin.

Schanche sent Rankin what he described as "one full-negative print of the entire picture, plus several enlargements" of the Altgens picture. These the Commission did not print.

I would like very much to borrow these pictures. If this version of the Altgens picture was not made at the same time from the same negative, and by the Post, I would like to be able to borrow a copy of the print you used in the issue dated 12/14/63.

Briefly, there are differences between versions of this single picture that cannot, in my opinion, be accounted for by normal touching up.

What happened to that TV show we were supposed to do in January?

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
